RIBBON CUTTING CEREMONY! LOCAL TRAINING AGENCY OPENS NEW PRODUCTION STUDIO!

CARY, NC, June 14, 2021 – Aquinas, celebrating its tenth year as an industry leader in providing custom training solutions to the pharmaceutical and life sciences industries, is excited to announce the launch of its brand-new full-service production studio at its Cary-based headquarters.

The studio will provide customers with a full suite of production abilities including video recordings, podcasts, recorded presentations, voiceover recordings, and many more solutions. This will provide opportunities for local actors and other talent around the Triangle and surrounding areas.

On Monday, June 14th, at 11:00 am, Aquinas leadership executives and the Marketing team will proudly participate in the official ribbon cutting to celebrate this new venture and begin offering services to customers.
